

(2) Dad being on Oprah

I was shocked when my dad ~~called~~ ~~re~~informed me, a few minutes before leaving to Chicago, that he was going on Oprah. I love Oprah, however felt worried + anxious regarding this decision. What would he talk about? How will Oprah react to this "crazy" situation. I am aware of how monolithic my responsibilities are (even more so subsequent to babies arrival home) and am also mindful of ~~the~~ ^{the} negative responses + perceptions of society.
