Why do you reasonably suspect a crime occurred, and how is the evidence sought relevant to this crime?

The driver lost control of his vehicle, crashed and was transported to the hospital. A witness stated that the driver had consumed alcohol earlier in the day and the same witness removed the driver from the vehicle after the collision. Also, the same witness stated that the driver was prescribed medication (Ambien and Vicatin). Impairment of the driver is also suspected due to the careless driving that resulted in the traffic crash.

Any costs, including the cost of copying or research, must be paid by the requesting police agency.
